Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your Freedom of Information request received on 26 April 2014 about CBI fees.

I can confirm that the University does not hold the information requested.

The information requested by you comprised the following.

Broken down by financial years 2011/12, 12/13 and 13/14, please state how much your organisation has paid in membership/subscription fees to the Confederation of British Industry.

The University's Response

Broken down by financial years 2011/12, 12/13 and 13/14, please state how much your organisation has paid in membership/subscription fees to the Confederation of British Industry.

As the University has not been a member of the CBI, the information requested is not held.

This concludes the University's response

Your right to seek a review of how your information request was managed

If you are not satisfied with our response or our reasoning set-out above, you have forty working days in which to request a review of our decision. Any request should be put in writing and should be sent to the University Secretary, Abertay University, at the address provided below. The request should:

- (a) detail your request for a review of our decision to be undertaken
- (b) describe the nature of your original request
- (c) explain the reasons why you are dissatisfied with our response
