IMPORTANT NOTICE

The information held on your Accommodation application form(s) and in any other records or correspondence relating to your Accommodation are stored as part of your records on a database and as manual records. This data is held and processed in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998, the General Data Protection Regulation (once implemented) and the University's [insert name of relevant policy dealing with data protection]. You hereby authorise the University to use your personal data for all lawful purposes in connection with this contract (including debt recovery and crime prevention) or where there is a serious risk of harm to you or to others or to the University's property.

This Agreement, once signed, is a legally binding contract which commits you to payment of rent (and any other sums due hereunder and the other obligations detailed therein) for the full duration of the Occupancy Period. In previous years students have created significant problems for themselves by signing such agreements and incorrectly assuming that it was not binding. In certain circumstances, and at the University's discretion, you may be offered alternative accommodation from within the University's housing stock, but no move to private flats or lodgings will lead to a waiver of rental payments due under this Occupancy Agreement.

Do not accept this Agreement unless you intend to occupy the Accommodation for the whole of the Occupancy Period.
